We have a commitment to staging events for all ages and also an obligation to our artists and to those audience members who wish to enjoy in peace the events not identified as children's concerts. Our expectation is that everyone attending concerts (other than children's concerts) should be able to sit reasonably still and in silence for the duration of the performance.

Concessions

Concession prices apply to full-time students, unemployed people, disabled visitors (who are also allowed a concession for one companion), senior citizens in receipt of state pension and children/young people aged 18 and under (except for the Children's Concert, where there is a special £5 ticket available). You may be asked to present proof of your status when booking or at the venue.

Carer Pass

We offer one free Carer Pass per ticket holder on request[†] and this can be booked directly with the festival. Please email hbpiantofest@gmail.com with your requirements. This is, of course, subject to ticket availability. Carer Pass holders should be able to meet the needs of the person they are accompanying, and assist them in the event of an emergency

[†]To be eligible for our free Carer Pass please provide evidence to show you could not attend a concert on your own, e.g. that you are in receipt of the Care component of Disability Living Allowance, a letter from your GP etc.

Late arrivals

Concerts start punctually at the advertised time. To avoid disruption to the performers and to other members of the audience, latecomers may not be admitted until the first applause. On rare occasions (e.g. a long sonata) this may mean that latecomers will not be able to get into the Hall until the end of the first half.

Children and babies at concerts

Older children (KS2 and above) are welcome at all concerts, subject to item K in the general information above (concessionary rate applies).

Babies and younger children (KS1 and below) may only be taken to events specified 'suitable for all ages'.

Tickets for babies and children: babes in arms may be admitted free of charge to events specified as 'suitable for all ages'. If your child is old enough to be able to sit in a seat, then a ticket must be purchased for them (concessionary rate applies)
