A polite reminder to ensure everyone enjoys the concerts

We have a commitment to staging events for all ages and also an obligation to our artists and to those audience members who wish to enjoy in peace the events not identified as children's concerts. Our expectation is that everyone attending concerts (other than children's concerts and free café concerts) should be able to sit reasonably still and in silence for the duration of the performance. We reserve the right to ask people to leave the concert hall if they are disturbing others.

Concessions

Concession prices apply to full-time students, unemployed people, disabled visitors (who are also allowed a concession for one companion), senior citizens in receipt of state pension and children/young people aged 18 and under (except when a Young Person's ticket[†] is available, and for the children's concerts). You may be asked to present proof of your status when booking or at the venue.

Carer Pass

One free Carer Pass per ticket holder is available on request* and this can only be booked directly with the Festival. Please email Jan Scott Nelson at hbpianofest@gmail.com with your requirements. This is, of course, subject to ticket availability. Carer Pass holders should be able to meet the needs of the person they are accompanying and assist them in the event of an emergency.

To be eligible for our free Carer Pass please provide evidence to show you could not attend a concert on your own, e.g. that you are in receipt of the Care component of Disability Living Allowance, a letter from your GP etc.*

Young people, children and babies at concerts

Accompanied young people and older children (KS3 and above, KS2 at parents' discretion) are welcome at all concerts, at a concessionary rate, subject to the Polite Reminder above.

†Young Person's ticket – at specified concerts, a lower concessionary rate applies for accompanied young people and older children (KS3 and above, KS2 at parents' discretion), subject to the Polite Reminder above.

Babies and younger children (KS1 and below) may only be taken to events specified 'Suitable for all ages'.

Tickets for babies and children: babes in arms may be admitted free of charge to events specified as 'Suitable for all ages'. If your child is old enough to be able to sit in a seat, then a ticket must be purchased for them.
