Festival Launch
in the Café Bar 6pm
Henry Botham:
New Orleans Rhythm'n'Blues

Great blues tunes from the likes of Dr John and Professor Longhair, as well as a New Orleans take on some modern classics.
Free entry to all advance ticket holders for any event.

Anthony Goldstone
Waterfront Hall 8pm £12/£10

A truly world-class pianist presenting a dazzling and demanding programme which includes some of the most well-known and best loved pieces by Beethoven, Schubert, Tchaikovsky and Mussorgsky.

Saturday April 20

Holly Cullen-Davies:
Piano Bites - a concert for children
The Space 11am £5/£1 (children) Repeated at 2.30pm

An enchanting concert that will appeal to children of all ages...and their parents. Some of the greatest piano works written for or about children from a highly experienced performer, passionate about delivering live music to the younger generation through informal, accessible and interactive recitals.

For further information about the concerts visit www.hebdenbridgepianofestival.com

James Kreiling and Janneke Brits
Waterfront Hall 12.30pm £7/£5

James and Janneke perform solo works by Bach, Messaien, Schumann and Thomas Ades, then join forces for the exciting and technically challenging Rhapsodie Espagnol by Ravel - one of the greatest works written for piano duet.

Holly Cullen-Davies:
Piano Bites - a concert for children
2.30pm As Saturday 11am

Aisa Ijiri
Waterfront Hall 4pm £12/£10

Music by Bach, Liszt, Rachmaninov and Prokofiev. One of the finest Japanese pianists of her generation: 'A special talent whose European sophistication, fierce passion and poetic sentiment create a lyrical atmosphere'.

Henry Botham:
Stride and Shout!
Café Bar 6.30pm Admission free

Classic material from the Harlem stride masters of the 1920s - Fats Waller, James P. Johnson, Willie 'The Lion' Smith, Luckey Roberts and Eubie Blake.

Anthony Goldstone and Caroline Clemmow
piano duet recital
Waterfront Hall 8pm £12/£10

Anthony Goldstone joins his wife Caroline Clemmow for an imaginatively chosen programme that includes works by Rimsky-Korsakov, Alfvén, Brahms, Delius, Tchaikovsky, Seiber, Grieg and Brahms.

Sunday April 21

Jessica Zhu
Waterfront Hall 12.30pm £7/£5

This 'outstanding young Chinese-American pianist' (The Independent) presents a superb programme of music by Schubert and Debussy.

Student Concert
The Space 2pm £5/£3

A delightful concert featuring favourite piano pieces performed by students of Hebden Bridge piano teacher David Nelson. Programme to be announced on the website at the beginning of April. Introduced by David Nelson.

Afternoon Tea with the Piano Club
Waterfront Hall 4pm £7/£5

The pianists' collective presents its acclaimed Afternoon Tea recital - a firm favourite with a winning combination of wonderful music and delectable tea and cakes (not included in ticket price).

Dave Nelson: Jazz Excursions
Café Bar 6.30pm
Admission free

Solo jazz piano compositions that reflect Dave's equal regard for both jazz and classical music, especially that of Debussy and Ravel.

Martin Roscoe
Waterfront Hall 8pm £12/£10

Music by Haydn, Schubert, Dohnanyi and Brahms: '... a confident and unvarnished dynamism that reveals a pianist at the top of his game ... Roscoe brings panache, sensitivity and relish to the task, finding pathos, humour and exuberance...' (International Piano).
